Mr. Speaker and my fellow parliament members. On behalf of the parliament members of PPM and PNC with the guidance of His Excellency President Yameen, I take the honour to convey our deepest condolences to His Majesty King Charles, the Royal family, and the people of United Kingdom for passing Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth. Our thoughts are with them at this very difficult time. Her majesty queen was just 13 years old when the World War II broke. She emerged as the Queen of the Great Britain when the world was coming to the grips of aftermath of the World War II. It was not an easy time. Today as we reflect on her 70 years of rein, it is important to note that she materialized the pledge she made on her 21st birthday. Her pledgeries, my whole life, whether it be long or short shall be devoted to your service in the service of a great imperial family to which we all belong, and she made it. She was on her duty until her last breath. Her majesty was perceived as the mother figure for millions of people. She gave the lifelong love, the outstanding care, and the mutual respect to the people. She has exemplified her devotion to her country and
